

Dave's Blarg!

2011-Oct-27

Today was one of the less-write-about-able days :p Went to work, went to an OSUSVT meeting and came home ☺ It was a good day though!

Leaving work a bit late...

A few of the usual suspects at the Solar Car Electronics meeting. So just to spice things up I dug up this video of the solar car team working on their last car, it's a pretty good one ☺

Until Tomorrow! (teaser, Tomorrow will be A Lot more interesting :D)

P.S. One of my friends made mention of my gud shpelling, and it's just not fair, I write these so late at night!!! (those of you who know me well know that time of day doesn't rally affect my spalling :p) :D
