

Dave's Blarg!

2011-Oct-31

I've occasionally wondered how long it would take to get out of prison with a file....

I LIKE THIS ALOT MORE

I seriously thought that the a lot had been retconned into the english language

I almost forgot!! Becca sent me some pictures of her preparing the key cake! And while I'm covering old bits and odds, The computer guy at my work has informed me that t'was not he that made his office so, apparently the picture I took was after he had removed two piles of boxes that our intern had snuck in. I'm still guessing the he made the leaning tower on his desk, but none the less. Also, James informed me that the alot isn't a word, it's a mythical beast! (whodathunk!) Speaking of that, several aspersions have been made towrd my awesum spilleng! (I know, me fail English! That's un-possible!) What can I say, I write this up as the last thing I do every day :p I try to read it through, but sometimes my wee synapse light bulbs (or lub-lubs as my dad likes to inform me I used to pronounce them – perhaps that's when the trouble started...) aren't always lighting up like they ought :D Work was pretty...worky today. The major item of excitement was finding out that I have to drive over to the ship on Friday because they are testing the emergency generator and I have to shutdown/restart all the computerboxes before/after the test.

Eeeeyah! (she's laughing with me, not at me, I swear....)

Oh that, and I re-did all the paperwork for my benefits. I've filled out the exact same information on so many forms that... well.... Lets just say that there are some very well informed bits of paper floating about the bureaucrasphere (and sometimes my spelleieing is one purpose, I swears..) After that it was workout time with Steph. I thought I was in ok shape but she kinda mopped the floor with me. I made sure to get her from her good angles to make up for it ☺

* Don't read after this if you're Dana!!! ****

That's right, just try to resist!!!

Well I suppose you can read it seeing as your birthday gift was your idea :p

Every year moving out college kids put washers and dryers on the street for free. I'd have ten if I could! I swear I'm not a hoarder.....

My friend Dana wants to do a laser obstacle course for her birthday, like they showed in one episode of the big bang theory. So My friend Hai-Yue and I set about ordering parts. I also got a few knickknacks from home depot and Radio Schnack.

Hey Allison!! Where does home depot keep the soan! 😊

Ahhhh 😊 Not going to lie, sometimes I'm surprised at what you don't get kicked out of stores for... :D

Home Depot lets you try thinking thrones before you buy!

I love going to home depot! It makes me wish I had a house to put twenty washers and dryers in! It also gave me a chance to clean off after my workout and to catch up on some emails 😊

The mirror with some of the backing off.

trying to turn it into a front reflecting mirror (read, removed the backing, used paint stripper to remove the gray

I have an IR tripwire kit that I repurposed, and to make there be more than one beam I got a mirror from home depot. I got a relatively cheap one, and I spent a bit of a while

Me attending youtube glass cutting university

Starting to strip the grey paint on the mirror paint and expose the silver, found out that the stripper & acetone leave a junk surface on the silver and that the original mirror works better ☹) Anyhow, I had a bit of trouble cutting it up, but after a quick youtube video (thanks user artidmembers !) I was an expert cutter ☺ I reduced the mirror into strips, and I'll make the strips into squares as needed when the mounts come in (hooray for cheap overnight shipping!) I put up a video of the working gadget here: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5DeNr9xgR7I>

It's all smoke and mirrors!! :D

:D :D :D I can't wait for the party!!

Oh, and my mushroom prints.... Turned out? I don't really know, they're my first ones. One of the mushrooms didn't put down anything, which gives me an inkling that I maaaaay have done something wrong.....

Sadly my friend is the one with the mushroom ID book, so until proven otherwise, from one side to the other, The Oregonian Unknowium, The Shrivelanthemum, and the you-might-not-want-to-eat-me aceaum.

Until tomorrow,

Dave
